• Chat GPT and AI Language Models K Franson	• What is it? Are we doomed? • [Video Presentation.] • Trained on the web data sources, but NO real-time connection. Only gives answers based on prior training set. Many uses, many limitations. • So, not up to date, not always correct. • Previously, could also not do references, but now with Microsoft Bing linkage, will be able to. • M Wu tried using it to do a CNS course homework assignment – did pretty well, got some things wrong. • Do we need a specific policy on using/misusing AI – ethical concerns, (e.g. plagiarism, etc.)? Other Universities are starting to publish policies. • [Discussion/Comments: Need a policy. Want to prevent, detect abuse. How do we develop a policy? Must disclose use (including what for). Must verify any AI derived information. Students should be able to perform all work WITHOUT this tool. Need to recognize that it will be used; should demonstrate to students how it is helpful, where it goes wrong – i.e., provide context to clinical practice – lives are on the line.] • Scholarship Standards Committee can draft a policy and submit it for PFC approval. • [I Steinberg: If we create a policy, will also need governance/enforcement.
